

Introducing the Object Cue

Touch and handle objects with the individual (see Mutual Tactile Attention) and engage in nonverbal and verbal conversations about activities that the objects represent.

For example, show the individual the chain from the swing; touch it together; act out swinging and invite the individual to feel your actions. Sign SWING tactilely. Notice the individual's reactions and respond.