Fair Labor Standards Act

- Federal Statute
- Enforced by U.S. Department of Labor
- Mandates payment of minimum wage and overtime to employees who are not exempt
- Sets minimum standards

FLSA

- FLSA does not require:
 - Vacation, holiday, severance or sick pay
 - Meal or rest periods, holidays off or vacations
 - Premium pay for weekend or holiday work
 - Pay raises or fringe benefits
 - Discharge notice or immediate payment of final wages

FLSA Enforcement

- DOL Wage and Hour Division enforces labor laws regarding wages, hours and conditions of employment
- Investigations not limited to wage and hour issues raised in complaint
- May be expanded to include I-9s, FMLA compliance, etc.

Categorizing Workers

- All workers who are employees fall into one of two categories for FLSA purposes:
 - Exempt: NOT subject to minimum wage or overtime rules
 - Nonexempt: subject to minimum wage and overtime rules.

Independent Contractors

- Workers who are independent contractors are outside the scope of employment laws, including FLSA
- Sometimes called “1099” workers
- Control of work is key factor
- IRS best resource on this topic

Exempt v. Non-exempt

- Exemptions are defined by statute and regulation (not by employer)
- Individual analysis required
- All employees outside the exemptions are nonexempt
- Salary v. hourly not necessarily determinative

Three Tests for Exemption

- 1. Salary Level
- 2. Salary Basis
- 3. Job Duties
- Employer must show all three tests are met
- Exceptions (not subject to Salary Level or Salary Basis tests)
 - Teachers, doctors and lawyers

Salary Level Test

- Start here
- If weekly salary falls below threshold, analysis ends and employee is not exempt
- Employees earning less than the salary level will be overtime-eligible, irrespective of job duties
 - Number of these will increase under new rule

ONE VOICE ONE FOCUS
FOR STUDENTS' ASPIRATIONS

West Virginia Department of EDUCATION

New Salary Level Test Effective 12/1/16

- Prior rule = $455/week
- New rule = $913/week (or $47,476/year)

ONE VOICE ONE FOCUS
FOR STUDENTS' ASPIRATIONS

Applying Salary Level to Board Employees

- $913/week works out to $47,476 annually
- For employees not working 52 weeks/year, this amount may be prorated
- Example: Employee who works 40 weeks/year (standard 200 day employment term) must earn $913/week while actually working ($36,520/year) to satisfy the salary level

New Salary Level Test

- Increases automatically every three years beginning January 1, 2020
- New level of $913/week is based on the 40th percentile of earnings of full-time salaried workers in the country's lowest-wage Census Region (South)
- Every three years, the number will adjust based on this same percentile of full-time salaried workers in the lowest-wage Census Region

Employer Response to New Overtime Rule

- Regardless of job duties, employees who do not satisfy the salary level will be reclassified as nonexempt and become eligible for overtime pay

West Virginia Department of
EDUCATION

Employer Response to New Overtime Rule

- Employer options:
 - Raise salary above new salary level
 - Reclassify as nonexempt and pay overtime for hours worked over 40 in a work week
 - Reclassify as nonexempt and limit hours to 40 in a work week

ONEVOICE
ONEFOCUS
FOR STUDENTS' ASPIRATIONS

West Virginia Department of
EDUCATION

Employer Response to New Overtime Rule

- Changing employees' status from exempt to nonexempt does not require employers to pay such employees an hourly wage
- Nonexempt employees may continue to receive a salary

ONEVOICE

FOR STUDENTS' ASPIRATIONS

West Virginia Department of
EDUCATION

Salary Basis Test

- Regularly receives a predetermined amount of compensation each pay period
- The compensation cannot be reduced because of variations in the quality or quantity of the work performed
- Must be paid the full salary for any week in which the employee performs any work
- Need not be paid for any work week in which no work is performed
