

Ladybug Girl and the Rescue Dogs

by David Soman and Jacky Davis

Reading with your child is an excellent way to expose your child to words, topics, and ideas that are more complex than what they would see in books they can read on their own. Conversations are a great way to help increase your child's oral language skills and build their vocabulary. C.A.R. is a conversation starter you can use with your child any time.

Conversations will help increase your child's oral language skills and build their vocabulary. C.A.R. is a conversation starter that you can use with your child any time.

Below is an example of how to use C.A.R. with the book, Ladybug Girl and the Rescue Dogs.

C.A.R.	Example
C Comment and Wait (count to 5)  *Make a comment about what you see on the page.	Adult: I see lots of dogs catching balls on this page. Child: That's the same dog in different places.
A Ask questions and Wait (count to 5)  *Ask questions that do not have a "yes/no" or one-word answer to them.	Adult: Why do you think the illustrator drew the same dog in five different positions? Child: I think they were trying to show the dog jumping up to catch the ball.
R Respond by adding a little more to the child's response.	Adult: Oh, I see! You're saying that if they had just drawn the dog in one place, we wouldn't have been able to see the motion that happened when she jumped up and came back down again.
