CODEWV

Week of Code July 10-14

CodeWV will offer introductory computer science professional learning for elementary school (CSF/Apple), middle school (CSD), and high school educators (both CSP and CSA).

General Information

Location: Charleston, WV

Workshop Cost: No cost to WV teachers

What's Provided:
- Teaching materials and workshop supplies
- Lodging and mileage reimbursement(if applicable)
- Meals
- $150 per day stipend
- CSTA Membership

Middle/High Programs: Application is required (takes about 10 min)

Middle and High School Professional Learning

Middle School Educators:

July 10-14
Computer Science Discoveries (6th-10th grade)

High School Educators:

July 10-14
Computer Science Principles (9th-12th grade)

June 26-30
Computer Science A (10th-12th grade)

*This training will fulfill the WVDE AP training requirement. Upon completion of the course, certificates will need to be submitted to WVDE to process this fulfillment.

Elementary School Professional Learning

July 10th and 11th
Computer Science Fundamentals Intro

July 12th and 13th
Computer Science Fundamentals Intro Apple Get Started with Code

July 14th
Computer Science Fundamentals Deep Dive
- ❖   CS Fundamentals Intro taken at least a month prior and have taught several lessons

Enroll in a workshop today at the link below:
https://codewv.wvu.edu/workshops

Have Questions? Email Amber Stoffel at codewv@mail.wvu.edu.